

All that matters now.

One prayer makes the difference between, reality and
dreams, life and death, all it takes is one prayer.
one kiss, makes the difference to us, between living and love, we can have this, all it takes is one prayer.
Our lives so fragile and yet this love found us
somehow, and now I'm living each moment, each moment with you is all that matters now.
one life, and the magic of dreams, change everything
when the feelings right, all it takes is one life.
Our lives so fragile and yet, this love found us
somehow, and now I'm living each moment, each
moment with you is all that matters now.
Each moment with you is all that matters now.
