

As Christmas Evans, one of the great Welsh preachers, Picturesquely put it: Never did any shepherd climb a mountain as dangerous and as challenging as Mount Calvary. There on its summit the Good Shepherd drew sin to battle, overcame all its forces, silenced forever the voice of the archenemy of our souls - and by so doing has prepared for us a table in the presence of our enemies, come and be fed!
