

I am a Christian because of the grace of God

I am not a Christian because I was raised to be one. Nor am I Christian because I was smart enough to figure it out, good enough to find my way, or lucky enough to meet the right people. I am a Christian because the grace of God found me when I wasn't even looking. I am a Christian because of God's miraculous intervention in my life.

Jack