

Partner with God

Part 2

Be bold!

Want to partner with God?

It's much like learning to swim. Will the water really support me? To find out you must surrender to it.

Now see what God does. When we genuinely open our hearts and surrender to him, he presents us with these three gifts –

First, he gives us faith to believe what seemed unbelievable! As rebellious sinners and estranged from our Creator, we failed to accept that he is real. Yet now we find that he is indeed close by – “not far from every one of us.” Acts 17.27.

Second, he gives us faith to know the unknowable! When we reach out to him he enables us to discover things that were previously hidden from us – things that we previously thought were unknowable – that he actually loves us, offers his forgiveness, and wants to accept us as his children!

Third, he gives us faith to see the invisible! The first century disciples saw Jesus – the Son of God – with their own eyes, but Jesus said, “Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.” John 20.29.

When we come to God (through Jesus) – what an eye-opener! Try it and see for yourself.

I set out to search for him and found he was searching for me.
