

What God does

If I become a Christian, how will that affect my day to day living?

First, it will mean that I have the best leadership and greatest blessing in the universe, “for as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.” Romans 8.14.

Second, it will mean that my faith in God now helps me overcome evil worldly influences: “This is the victory that has overcome the world - our faith.” 1 John 5.4.

Third, it makes me more than a conqueror. “Christ died for our sins”, 1 Corinthians 15.3.

What a conqueror! I couldn't have done it (and didn't have to) - which makes me more than a conqueror. Romans 8.37.

Fourth, it will mean that, as to my needs, I can daily mention them to God in my prayers. The Bible says, “You do not have because you do not ask.” James 4.2.

Fifth, it will mean that though some things may seem to me to be impossible, “all things are possible to him who believes.” Mark 9.23.

Sixth, it will mean that my relationship with God will be permanent. He has said, “I will never leave you nor forsake you.” Hebrews 13.5.
