Is the Bible true?

First, the Bible says that sin entered our world. Is there any evidence of that? Yes, plenty.

Second, we are told in Galatians 6.7, “whatever a man sows, that he will reap.” Does he? He sure does.

Third, the Bible says, “we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as Saviour of the world.” 1 John 4.14.

Is mankind proving that wrong? Are we demonstrating that we can save ourselves? Our ongoing worldwide unrest tells a different story, with every form of violence, cruelty, hatred, warfare, bloodshed, madness.

Fourth, does mankind need more time - perhaps another thousand years - to prove that we can rescue ourselves? The Bible indicates that God is letting us prove we can't save ourselves. Therefore his coming day of reckoning and judgment is foretold: “The end of all things is at hand.” 1 Peter 4.7.

History is not going nowhere; it is going somewhere in a hurry. In fact, without a climax history would be incomplete.

Meanwhile, if the rest of the world wants to do insane things, you and I don't have to. We can, instead, right now accept God's offer of forgiveness and salvation through his Son.
