

Finding God

Part 2

“Let God appear, then I'll believe!”

That's easy to say, but what do we want to see? His mighty power? No, that would overwhelm us. His holiness? No, such exposure would shame us. His omnipresence (being everywhere at once)? No, that would smother us.

For mere man to capture a glimpse of God would be like trying to fit a million Pacific Oceans into a teacup.

The fact is our eyes could not handle even a brief glimpse of God in all of his majestic power and glory. In fact he told Moses, “no one can see me and stay alive!” Exodus 33.20 (Good News Bible).

What we really need to see is the kind of heart he has. Does he sympathise, is he compassionate, is he a God of love?

He has answered all of these questions, laid bare his heart through one special person – Jesus. So, when Philip said to Jesus, “Show us the Father,” Jesus replied, “He who has seen me has seen the Father.” John 14.9. He also said, “I and the Father are one.” John 10.30.

Though there may be much about God we don't understand, with Jesus' help we can make a start.

Best way to find God? Jesus said, “I am the Way.” John 14.6.
