

That Book!

Here's wonderful news – reading God's Book causes people to abandon their unbelief about him.

How does this happen?

First, since it is essential for us to know God's will, then such information must be readily available. Sure enough, nine-tenths of his will for our lives is already made known to us in the Bible.

Second, it makes sense that our Creator would want to show us his recipe for successful living. And surely we ourselves are keen to know all about that.

Third, God is quite emphatic in saying, “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go.” Psalm 32:8.

Who does this instructing? He does. This task isn't left to someone else. That shows us its importance.

Fourth, nor does God take a holiday from helping us. “The Lord will guide you continually.” Isaiah 58:11.

What a privilege. What a generous overseer he is. How tireless is his care for us. We could ask for no greater provision. Yet some people say that they are satisfied to seek their daily guidance from the stars! Well I prefer to be guided by the God who made the stars.

“The Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.”
