

Home Life Part 1

Find fulfilment: Any marriage can have difficulties. Our problems are usually symptoms of personal weaknesses we each bring into a union. So the wedding doesn't create our problems, it simply exposes them.

What an anomaly that though we have more books on marital success than ever before, divorces and separations continue.

Many marriage partners are desperately unhappy and long for release from their misery. So what can be done?

First, the best help in the world is usually overlooked or ignored!

For example, who instituted families in the first place?

Who knows better than we do to shape human lives? None other than the One who created us - God himself!

So Second, why don't we put Him at the helm - pray to Him for guidance?

God is only too willing to show us how to reach our potential in our marriage, and in every other area of our lives.

Third, we can do these four things immediately: (1) Ask God's help

(2) Get acquainted with a church in your area that can offer encouragement and support.

(3) Ask about the church library's magazines or books on husband/wife relationships.

(4) Buy the book, His needs her needs by Willard F. Harley, Jr.

GOOD NEWS IN BRIEF

And remember, local calls to God are free.

Ken Packer